Celebrate the Girl Scouts' 100th anniversary

In some ways, this is like any other year for the Girl Scouts. Cookie sales are continuing through March 9, for example, as troops raise money for activities and earn some life lessons at the same time.

In other ways, this is a very different year for the organization, which is marking its 100th anniversary on March 12. Here in northern Massachusetts, that means a "Forever Green" gala celebration on March 29 at the Fairmont Copley Plaza in Boston featuring Chelsea Clinton, along with other events.

In honor of the Girl Scouts' 100th anniversary this year, we are seeking photos to put in our papers and online at Wicked Local. We are looking for Girl Scout photos from all eras, not just current Scouts — in fact, we'd especially like to see older photos.

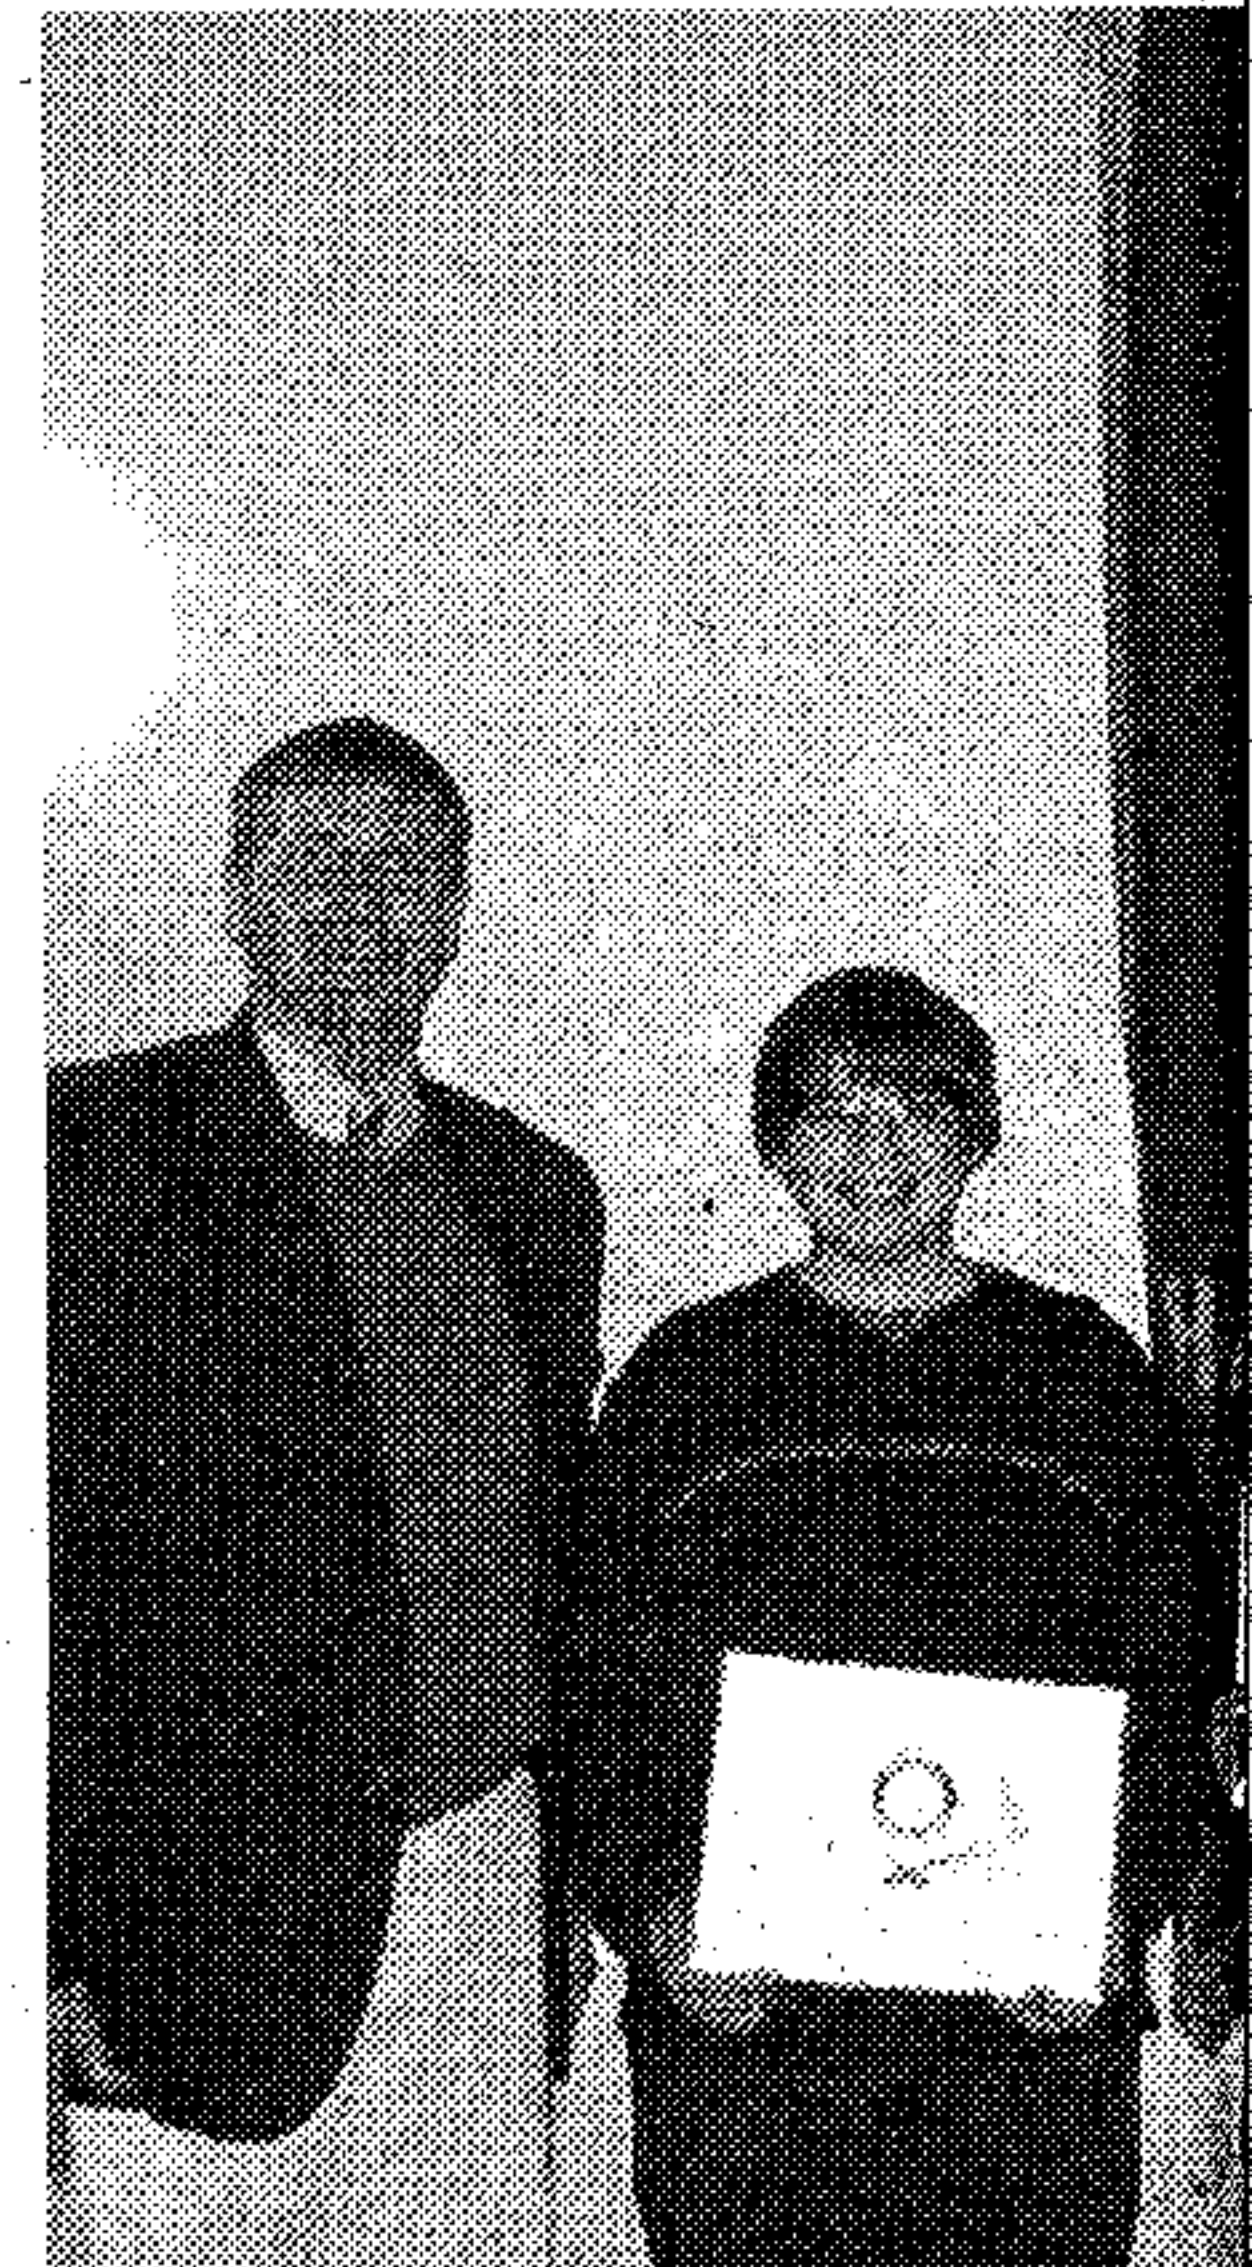

Send your photos to northshore@wickedlocal.com.

Mary Kay taps Lekkakos for new line

Mark Kay Cosmetics Inc. has tapped Maria Lekkakos, owner of the M. Lekkakos Salon, Spa & Boutique in Wenham, to be a member of Mary Kay's new Influencer Panel.

Lekkakos will be sharing her expertise about Mary Kay's new Botanical Effects line with the public and press. She just returned from New York where she launched the line to editors at national magazines, such as Allure, Good Housekeeping and Woman's Day. Her role will include writing about Botanical Effects, continuing to be a resource for beauty press and sharing her expertise with her celebrity clientele. Lekkakos is an award-winning celebrity aesthetician and skincare expert who brings over a decade of professional experience in the beauty industry and a long list of awards and accolades. Rotary honors middle-schooler

John McKenna and Adrian Verduga, two Miles River Middle School students, were recently awarded outstanding accomplishment certificates by the Hamilton-Wenham Rotary Club. McKenna was cited for most improved academically and Verduga for Leadership.

The teacher who nominated McKenna wrote, "John McKenna is a really committed sixth grade student. He has recently made some great strides with regards to his academics. Always a good student, John has improved his overall achievement in his classes by voluntarily beginning to stay after school with his teachers for additional help with his coursework. John...works diligently to understand the concepts
